Classy Wrestlers.

Followers of the wrestling game will be given the opportunity of witnessing a good fast game at the Gem Theatre in Oregon next Tuesday night, when Tim Hurley, of Kansas City, meets Jack Wood, of this place, but formerly of San Diego, Cal.

Hurley has wrestled such men as Roller, Burns, Westergard, Cutler, Earnest, and has fought Carl Morris, and is looked upon as one of the best heavy-weight wrestlers in the country. Hurley agrees to throw Wood twice in one hour and six minutes (wrestling time), or lose the match. Wood is a great defense wrestler and if Hurley puts his shoulders to the mat he will know he has done something. Both of these men are in prime condition, having trained hard for this match. This should be one of the best matches ever staged in this part of the country and is worth going miles to see. Both men have exceptionally good records.

Cecil Robertson, of Fillmore, and some other good fast amateur will put on the preliminary.

—Miss Nell Kenney, of Mound City who will teach the fourth and fifth grades in our public school the coming year, was here during our Chautauqua, and getting acquainted with our people.

—George Murray began picking peaches early this week, having shipped one hundred crates by express Tuesday and Wednesday. He will probably be shipping in car lots during the next two weeks.

—Dr. J. S. Wood, of Elmo, is here for a visit with his son, Dr. W. S. Wood, and also enjoying our Chautauqua. He is the editor and proprietor of the Elmo Register, one of Nodaway county's good papers.

—Charles Suetterlin, of Maitland, is here, visiting his sisters, Mrs. Mary C. Seeman and Mrs. Fred Wetzel, and taking in the Chautauqua, and not a session does he miss. He has not missed an Oregon Chautauqua.

—Ralph Patterson, son of W. L. Patterson and wife, was severely injured last Saturday night, while in a friendly scuffle with some friends. He was accidentally shoved against a knife in the hands of Claude Fleming, receiving a bad cut in the back. Dr. Wyman took a half dozen stitches in the wound which is now healing.—Maitland Herald, August 7.

—Mrs. J. R. Collison arrived home this morning from St. Louis. She was accompanied home by Mrs. Ed. C. Kennish, who has been in the hospital in St. Louis, and expects to remain among relatives here for several weeks.—Maitland Herald, August 7. Mrs. Kennish is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Collison, and has many friends in the county who will be glad to learn of her improved condition.

—The State Association of Rural Free Delivery Carriers are in session today and tomorrow, August 15 to 16, at Kansas City. J. J. Lukens, of this city, is a candidate for president of the association, and we sincerely trust he may be chosen. He is one of the real live wires of the association. He will be heartily supported by the delegates from this district. F. H. Graham and Will Carroll, carriers out of Oregon, are attending as delegates.
